MEET PRECISION TENNIS INSTRUCTOR MATT MOSCATELLO

Matt is excited to join Precision Tennis Academy as a Teaching Professional and working with the Precision Junior Tennis Program. Matt is originally from Charleston, South Carolina and have been playing tennis since I was a teenager. He went to Greensboro College in Greensboro, N.C. and played for their tennis team during my 4 years there. During my summers, he worked his way back to Charleston to be a Tennis Camp Instructor and work with young children and teenagers to develop mechanics, strategies, and conditioning. After college, he has assisted Greensboro Day School with their tennis program and has been coaching both the middle school and high school teams the last 5 years.
